The 16th Annual Savor the San Juans invites you to taste the food & farm culture of Lopez, Orcas and San Juan Islands

FRIDAY HARBOR, WA... Why are trees so carefree and easygoing? Because every fall, they let loose! Join us in letting loose as the gourmet archipelago celebrates more than a decade of great food, local farms, and independent filmmaking. Savor the San Juans returns for its 16th year with film festivals, farm tours, harvest dinners and much more. Savor is a great way to ease into a slower time of year while basking in the food, spirits, music, and natural beauty of Orcas, Lopez and San Juan Islands.

To borrow a Coast Salish saying, when the tide is out, the table is set! Local seafood, oysters, heritage preserves, sea salt, and lavender products are just some of the artisan producers in the islands. Indulge your palate with these Island Grown foods and wine, beer, cider, and spirits, during a selection of farm-to-table dinners by local chefs. Take advantage of specials to affordably savor farm tours, demonstrations and workshops on Lopez, Orcas and San Juan Islands during harvest season.
